What is the Fair Hotels Campaign?

The Fair Hotels campaign is an initiative of hotel workers and their trade union representatives.

Fair Hotels are hotels that treat their staff fairly. Our objective is to support and promote quality employment in the hotel industry in Ireland by encouraging consumers to choose Fair Hotels for leisure, meetings and conferences.

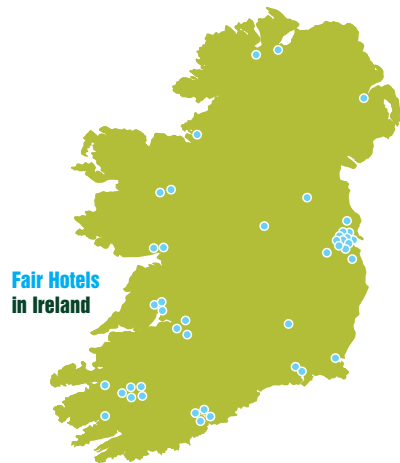

The Fair Hotels campaign was launched in Liberty Hall, Dublin, Ireland on Tuesday 25th May, 2010 by a broad coalition of supporters.

Supporters include hotel workers, trade unionists in Ireland and overseas, employers, hotel industry brokers, migrant and immigrant rights groups, faith based groups, women's organisations, fair trade campaigners, community organisations, non-governmental organisations, academics, consumer organisations, sporting organisations and informed individuals.

The Fair Hotels website has a full list of all hotels participating in the initiative, including their facilities and capacity for meetings and conferences. You can now book all your accommodation on line through www.fairhotels.ie. Check out our website for the latest information on discounts and offers and keep in touch through Facebook and Twitter.
