

Take Part in the Women's Aid Online Solidarity Balloon Release

Take part in the Women's Aid Online Solidarity Balloon Release by launching your own online balloons. Visit <http://www.womensaid.ie/campaigns/16days/onlineballoonrelease/> from today until 10th December 2010.

This online release is part of the Women's Aid National Balloon Action in solidarity with the One in Five Women experiencing domestic violence in Ireland which will see thousands of balloons released across Ireland on 25th November.

Your involvement in this campaign is extremely important to us because, not only are you showing solidarity with women living with abuse and those organisations, like Women's Aid, who provide vital support to women across Ireland, but you're also helping us to raise public awareness about the realities of living with domestic violence.

Please share this with other people on Twitter, Facebook or by email and help us spread awareness about domestic violence and the One in Five Women campaign.

Visit the 365 Violence against Women International Poster Exhibition, Light House Cinema, Dublin 7 from 25th November to 10th December 2010.

Women's Aid is very excited to present Violence against Women 365 International Poster Exhibition, curated by Colm Dempsey.

The exhibition can be viewed at

THE LIGHT HOUSE CINEMA, SMITHFIELD, DUBLIN 7

FROM 25TH NOVEMBER TO 10TH DECEMBER

From 2pm-8pm

The exhibition consists of over 400 public awareness posters from around the world which address the global issue of violence against women. It has been used by groups around the world as an educational tool and public awareness initiative. The posters in the exhibition focus on a wide range of issues from domestic violence to sex trafficking, and community responses.

Both these actions are part of the Women's Aid 'One in Five Women' 16 Days Campaign, 25th November to 10th December 2010. For more information go to www.womensaid.ie
