THE DIRECTORS' REPORT

The directors have pleasure in presenting their report and the financial statements of the company for the year ended 31st December 2013.

NWCI MISSION, VISION AND VALUES

National Women's Council of Ireland is the leading national women's membership organisation seeking equality between women and men. We represent our membership which includes 170 member groups as well as a wide range of supporting group and individual members from a diversity of backgrounds, sectors and locations. Our mission is to lead and to be a catalyst for change in the achievement of equality between women and men. We articulate the views and experiences of our members and make sure their voices are heard wherever decisions are made which affect the lives of women.

Our vision is of an Ireland, and of a world, where there is full equality between women and men.

Our values and beliefs shape what we do and how we work, key among these are that we are a feminist organisation. We believe that feminism is about working to change society so that women and men have an equal say in the decisions that affect their lives.

We are aware that women are not a homogenous group and very keen to reflect in our work the diversity that exists among all women.

We believe that care work is essential to the common good, it performs vital social and economic functions. We see the recognition and valuing of affective care as fundamental to full equality for women.

We believe in the fundamental dignity and human rights of all human beings. We recognise that these rights are universal, inalienable and indivisible.

We believe the right to makes one's own choices about one's body for oneself is at the very core of personal freedom. Bodily integrity is a human right.

We know that tackling inequality and creating a more equal society requires tackling structural inequalities as well as a shift in the balance from self-interested 'consumerism' to a friendlier and more collaborative society.

We believe that women in leadership positions (at all levels of society, locally, regionally, nationally and internationally) and the women's sector offer key sources of leadership and skills in relation to this change process.

GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

We comply with the Governance Code for community, voluntary and charitable organisations in Ireland. We confirm that a review of our organisation's compliance with the principles outlined in this Code was conducted in June 2013.

This review was based on an assessment of our organisational practice against the recommended actions for each principle. The review set out actions and completion dates for any issues that the assessment identified as needing to be addressed.

The governing body of the NWCI is called the Executive Board and the individual members are called Executive board members. This group has ultimate responsibility for the NWCI, overseeing and ensuring the overall direction, effectiveness and accountability of the organisation.

The role of the Executive Board is to oversee the business of the Company as per the Articles and Memorandum of Association.

As well as meeting monthly, a number of Board Sub-Committees are operated which are made up of Board and Staff representatives working on specific areas. In addition, Board Members may be part of an advisory committee/focus group or other working groups along with member groups for an event or project.

The Board is constituted from the membership of the NWCI; the membership elects the individual members of the Executive Board and also directly elects both the Chairperson and Deputy Chairperson at an Annual General Meeting every two years. When selecting candidates for election, the membership must be mindful that the executive board must include; three executive board members who reside outside Dublin and as agreed at the 2009 AGM, four members from groups who specifically target and work with certain designated categories of disadvantaged or marginalised member organisations.

- Knowledge/experience of how organisations work.
- Knowledge and skills in one or more areas of Board Governance: policy, strategic planning, finance/fundraising, employment issues and legal.

ROLE OF EXECUTIVE BOARD

The Executive Board has evolved over time, moving away from being completely responsible for management, as the organisation has employed professional staff.

The Board is committed itself to a policy making role within the context of a best practice model of good governance. The professional staff members implement that policy through a strategic plan over a three-year period.

The Executive Board ensures that:

- It formulates overall governance of the organisation, including policy development and the development of the strategic plan, in conjunction with the membership and staff.
- Board members and staff jointly undertake to act with integrity, at all times treating discussions about the business of NWCI as confidential.

- Its Board members act as ambassadors for the NWCI.
- Its Board members act as a resource – e.g. sub-committees may draw on the expertise of individual board members.
- The board may be consulted on submissions to government

A Board member's entirely voluntary involvement in the non-profit context demands a considerable time commitment and also a deeply held commitment to achieve equality for women and to the feminist ethos of the organisation. OUR WORK IN 2013

NWCI celebrated our 40th anniversary in 2013 by highlighting the achievements that have been made for women's rights and the changes that are necessary to ensure full equality between women and men in Ireland.

In 2013, we also worked with our membership and key stakeholders to develop a new direction for the NWCI. Our new Strategic Plan 'Leading the Change for Women's Equality' (2013-2015) sets out our vision, mission and values and core goals that we believe can deliver substantial change for women's rights and equality in Ireland.

The main work and activities of NWCI for 2013 are as follows;

Goal 1: Seeking Substantive improvements in equality and human rights for women

Valuing Care Work

Childcare: We continued to campaign for quality affordable childcare for all in 2013. We actively campaigned for the introduction of a 2nd pre-school year and provision for out of school hour's childcare.

We jointly hosted a seminar on developing a Scandinavian model of Childcare on 4th of March in EU House with OPEN, Start Strong and Barnardos. We also launched the results of a joint survey on childcare at the seminar.

Constitutional Convention: The Constitutional Convention held a session on Article 41 on women's role in modern Irish society. We made submissions and presentations to the Convention. It was a very successful outcome for NWCI. Our recommendations were taken on board and the Convention voted to remove article 41 and replace it with an article on care and agreed to include a separate clause on gender equality in the Constitution. It also recommended that the Government should adopt greater measures to increase numbers of women in politics.

A woman's right to health and bodily integrity

Gender Mainstreaming in Health: NWCI secured funding from the HSE to support the implementation of the framework document "Equal but Different" –A Framework for Integrating Gender Equality in Health Service Policy, planning and delivery. To this end we produced 3 'Gender Matters' resources for those involved in health service planning and delivery:

- i. A training for trainers manual to raise awareness of gender as a key determinant of health and how to mainstream a gender dimension into HSE policy planning,
- ii. A user friendly guide to gender mainstreaming and;
- iii. A practical toolkit to implement gender mainstreaming in policy and health service delivery

Women and Smoking

During 2013 NWCI continued its collaboration with the Irish Cancer Society on their ongoing and successful campaign to raise awareness of the crisis of women dying from lung cancer. The purpose of this campaign is to - identify the reasons why women smoke, difficulties in giving up smoking and what can be done by all sections of society to address this crisis. The NWCI and the Irish Cancer Society launched a conference report in January titled "2013 Time to Face the Crisis: Women and Smoking in Ireland". NWCI participate in the "We Can Quit" Advisory group of the Irish Cancer Society to oversee a piece of action research into women and smoking.

Women and Osteoporosis

NWCI and the Irish Osteoporosis Society held a roundtable "Women and Osteoporosis – All you need to know" which took place on May 14th. There was great interest in this information roundtable and the aim was to raise awareness amongst our membership and beyond on the impact of this silent disease on women in Ireland

Access to Safe and Legal Abortion

NWCI continued to campaign and advocate for legislation to provide abortion where women's lives are at risk. In January 2014, we presented to the Joint Oireachtas Committee on Health and Children on the government's intention to introduce legislation, while keeping alive our online campaign so that the public could communicate to their TD's on what should be included in such legislation. We published a policy position paper on abortion in March to articulate our mandate to members and friends and used social media to raise awareness of and clarify some of the common myths on abortion.

To mark International Women's Week, NWCI held a joint seminar with Doctors for Choice, a member organisation, on "Abortion in Ireland – The Lives and Health of Women", which gave voice to doctors in Ireland who advocate a pro-choice agenda. When the Heads of Bill were published in April, NWCI prepared an information brief for our members on the main tenets of the Bill and made a detailed submission to the Joint Oireachtas Committee on Health and Children regarding its concerns in relation to the draft legislation.

Violence Against Women

NWCI established an e-action campaign to encourage the Irish government to sign and ratify the Council of Europe Convention on Violence Against Women during Ireland's Presidency of the EU for the month of June. Over 2,300 emails were sent by over 200 people to their local representatives. NWCI held a joint roundtable with Amnesty International on the 11th of July with a representative speaker from the Council of Europe on the Convention.

The Y Factor – Youth Voices for Women's Equality

On 1st February 2013 The Y Factor project was formally launched at a hugely successful celebratory event at the Dublin City Council Wood Quay Venue. The Y Factor is an NWCI initiative that aims to support young women and men as advocates and leaders for women's equality. Throughout 2013 the project has been successful in a number of ways:

Engaging young people to take lead roles in the project: 10 young women from a diverse range of backgrounds form a Steering Group, which identifies and oversees the implementation of The Y Factor's key priorities. The Steering Group also forms part of the project's evaluation team, 8 young women make up a working group that drives the "Your Health Matters" campaign, A communications subgroup comprises young members who advise and support the Y Factor's communications work, 2 young volunteers (one male/one female) manage and sustain The Y Factor's social media platforms on a 6-month part-time voluntary contract.

Pilot education and awareness-raising programme: The Y Factor developed and delivered a pilot education and awareness-raising programme in 3 schools and 3 youth projects around the country between November 2012 and May 2013. This pilot has been evaluated and an advisory group established to identify how best to mainstream education and awareness-raising in formal and non-formal education settings into the future. The advisory group is made up of a variety of experts from the education and youth work sectors, and from NGO's who have done similar work.

"Your Health Matters" – a campaign to promote positive attitudes to young women and their health :

This campaign issue was identified by our youth supporters as a priority issue for The Y Factor. The campaign rationale and strategy are driven by the Health Campaign Working Group. "Your Health Matters" aims to raise awareness on how young people experience accessing health information and health services, to empower young people to know what they can expect in relation to healthcare provision and to promote dialogue and discussion between healthcare providers and young people with a view to improving service delivery.

Women in Decision Making

We invited the Executive Director of UN Women, Michelle Bachelet to address a joint meeting with the 50:50 Group on Women and Political Equality chaired by, Minister Kathleen Lynch.

We held a joint members meeting with the EWL on increasing the numbers of women on public and private Boards. The meeting was very well attended and we received very positive feedback. It generated significant media coverage and we published an opinion piece in the Irish Examiner.

Leadership Initiative

We were successful in our application to the Leadership Initiative to support our work to increase the numbers of Women on Public and Private Boards.

Goal 4: Sustaining ourselves as a strong, democratic organisation

Throughout 2013 financial sustainability continued to be a key priority for NWCI. We recruited a part time fundraiser to assist in the development and implementation of an income generation strategy for the organisation. In addition, we dedicated much time to locating suitable premises for purchase by NWCI Education & Training including office space for rental to other NGOs as an income generation mechanism.

Successful Funding Applications

We received approval for a number of projects in 2013;

Leadership Initiative Programme - to initiate our work to increase women's representation on Boards.

EU Year of Citizen - for the Communicating Europe Initiative.

Joseph Rowntree Charitable Trust - to support our 'women into politics' work for 3 years.

European Institute for Gender Equality - for a six month project to develop a database of literature on gender equality in Ireland in specific areas from 1995-2013.

FINANCIAL RESULTS

The financial results for the year ended 31st December 2013 are shown in the Consolidated Statement of Financial Activities on page 16.

These results show a net deficit of €110,824 (2012: net surplus €170,800).

INCOME

National Women's Council of Ireland (NWCI) and National Women's Council of Ireland (E&T) raised total income of €663,955 for the year ended 31st December 2013 (2012: €893,532)

The difference in the income raised can be attributed to the following; reduction of €50k in the Statutory grant from the Department of Justice and Equality to €300k (2012:€350k). Income received in 2012 from the HSE and Joseph Rowntree was for programme activities in 2012 and 2013, HSE €20,560 (2012: €141,586), Joseph Rowntree Trust €42,899 (2012: €71,014). These are restricted funds.

Restricted funds received in 2012 are carried forward to the following year in order to finish the programme of work and are therefore not part of income raised in 2013. (Restricted funds in 2012 were €192,531).

EXPENDITURE

Total expenditure for the year, at €775k is up 7% on 2012 (€725k). Charitable activities accounts for 94% of expenditure €729k (2012: €677k). Employee numbers have increased in 2013 by one (2012: 7). Cost of generating income has increased by 57% in the year to €30k (2012: 19k). This is due to the strengthening of NWCI's policy on income generating. NWCI wish to increase the grants received from membership and non-statutory organisations. We developed a new post of Fundraiser for the organisation on part-time bases to explore new and innovative means of generating donations and fundraising income.

NWCI's ability to deliver quality, value for money programmes has ensured strong positive relationships continue with Government Departments, Trusts and Philanthropic organisations.

RESERVES POLICY

NWCI's policy is to maintain unrestricted reserves at a minimum level to ensure the long-term viability of the organisation. Reserves to be maintained at a level which ensures that NWCI's core activity could continue during a period of unforeseen difficulty. It takes into account risks associated with each stream of income and expenditure being different from that budgeted, planned activity level and the organisations commitments. The results for the year are set out on pages 16-17. Over the last number of years the company accumulated unrestricted reserves as a contingency fund, which amounts to €4,922 as at 31.12.2012. The directors regard this level of unrestricted funds as inadequate for contingency purposes and have resolved to try to increase the level of unrestricted funds in the future. At the year end the balance sheet shows unrestricted reserve of €19,387 restricted reserves of €320,978 which will be carried forward to 2014. Restricted reserves will be used to carry out agreed programmes during 2014.

PRINCIPAL RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

The principal risks and uncertainties facing the organisation continues to be the sourcing of new funding and the purchase of a permanent office base.

Funding from Government Departments was reduced in 2013 which impacted on the level of activities which we were able to engage in during the year. The possibility of further reductions in Government funding in 2014 pose a risk to the organization.

The submission of new funding applications will continue to be a priority for the organisation throughout 2014 as well as implementing the new Strategic Plan.

NWCI's risk management and internal control lies with the Board of Directors, with the Audit/Finance Subcommittee playing a key supporting and assurance role.

The internal control system aims to monitor the procedures in place to ensure the Company is in compliance with the Companies Act and other legislative and reporting requirements;

Reviewing risk management practices monitor the establishment of an appropriate internal control framework, including information systems and considering enhancements;

Reviewing external audit reports and, where major deficiencies or breakdowns in controls or procedures have been identified, monitoring remedial action taken by management to ensure such action is appropriate and prompt;

Reviewing reports on any major defalcations, frauds and thefts from the Company;

Initiating and supervising special investigations;

Reviewing reports on the adequacy of insurance coverage

STAFF AND VOLUNTEERS

The Board would like to express their appreciation to the dedication and hard work of all their staff and volunteers, interns and students. The NWCI is committed to equality of opportunity in employment. All employment decisions at the NWCI, are based on competencies that include experience, abilities and qualifications. The organisation supports the implementation of positive action programmes to remove barriers to equality and promote concepts of diversity and equality of opportunity in all of its employment. It is our policy that the principles and practices of equality of opportunity should apply to all conditions of service for our employees, including recruitment, placement, selection, promotion, career development, training, pension and leave entitlements.

The NWCI is committed to ensuring the health, safety and well-being at work of its employees, student interns, contractors and visitors. It is committed to providing and maintaining a safe place of work, safe systems of work, safe equipment and safe procedures, in so far as is reasonably practicable, and in accordance with relevant legislation. This policy sets out the NWCI's programme for managing and safeguarding Health and Safety.

Irish company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that year. In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors confirm that they have complied with the above requirements in preparing the financial statements.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper books of account that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements are prepared in accordance with accounting standards generally accepted in Ireland and comply with the Companies Acts, 1963 to 2013. The directors are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

BOOKS OF ACCOUNT

The directors have employed a suitable qualified person to maintain the company's books and records, which are kept at the company's office at 4th Floor, 2/3 Parnell Square East, Dublin 1.

AUDITOR

The auditor, Grant Thornton, will continue in office in accordance with section 160(2) of the Companies Act 1963.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF NATIONAL WOMEN'S COUNCIL OF IRELAND - AMALGAMATED FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31st DECEMBER 2013

We have audited the financial statements of National Women's Council of Ireland Limited and the National Women's Council of Ireland Education & Training Limited for the year ended 31st December 2013 which comprise the Income and Expenditure Account, Balance Sheet, the Cash Flow Statement and the related notes. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is Irish law and accounting standards issued by the Financial Reporting Council and promulgated by the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Ireland (Generally Accepted Accounting Practice in Ireland).

RESPECTIVE RESPONSIBILITIES OF DIRECTORS AND AUDITOR

As explained more fully in the Directors' Responsibilities Statement set out on page 2 to 13, the directors are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements giving a true and fair view. Our responsibility is to audit and express an opinion on the financial statements in accordance with Irish law and International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland). Those standards require us to comply with the Auditing Practices Board's [APB's] Ethical Standards for Auditors.

This report is made solely to the company's shareholders, as a body, in accordance with Section 193 of the Companies Act, 1990. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the company's shareholders those matters we are required to state to them in an auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the company and the company's shareholders as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

SCOPE OF THE AUDIT OF THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

An audit involves obtaining evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements sufficient to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or error. This includes an assessment of: whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the company's circumstances and have been consistently applied and adequately disclosed; the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by the directors; and the overall presentation of the financial statements. In addition, we read all the financial and non-financial information in the Directors' report to identify material inconsistencies with the audited financial statements and to identify any information that is apparently materially incorrect based on, or materially inconsistent with, the knowledge acquired by us in the course of performing the audit. If we become aware of any apparent material misstatements or inconsistencies we consider the implications for our report.

OPINION ON FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

In our opinion the financial statements:

- give a true and fair view in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Practice in Ireland of the state of the company's affairs as at 31st December 2013 and of its loss for the year then ended; and
- have been properly prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Acts 1963 to 2013

MATTERS ON WHICH WE ARE REQUIRED TO REPORT BY THE COMPANIES ACTS 1963 TO 2013

- We have obtained all the information and explanations which we consider necessary for the purposes of our audit.
- In our opinion proper books of account have been kept by the company.
- The financial statements are in agreement with the books of account.
- In our opinion the information given in the directors' report is consistent with the financial statements.
